CSIR Diamond Jubilee Research Interns Awards

Established in 1984, the CSIR-Institute of Microbial Technology (IMTECH), Chandigarh is one among the chain of 38 national laboratories of the Council of Scientific & Industrial Research (CSIR). The Institute's primary asset is a team of more than 55 highly motivated scientists, with a majority of them having several years of training in world renowned laboratories. Supported by more than 300 well trained technical staff and graduate students, these scientists have built strong peer credibility both in basic and application-oriented broad thematic areas of molecular biology and microbial genetics, cell biology and immunology, protein science and engineering, and fermentation technology and applied microbiology. These overarching focus areas required enabling research facilities, structures and practices which IMTECH has created over the years, recognized nationally to be the best, and globally at par with the best.
